Dear Parents,

We are pleased to inform you that an Inter-House Dance Competition for Grade III to V is going to be held on 2nd May 2026. This competition aims to showcase the rich cultural diversity of our country through vibrant and traditional dance performances. Students will represent different states and perform dances reflecting their unique culture, costume, and music.

Details of the Event:

Theme : State-wise Dance Forms
Date : 2nd May 2026
Participants : Grade III to V (House-wise)

Students are encouraged to participate actively and practice sincerely.

Note:

All required materials, props, and basic arrangements will be provided by the school. House teachers will guide students regarding costumes, music, and other requirements. Parents are requested to extend their support and encourage their wards to participate enthusiastically.

We look forward to a colorful and energetic event filled with talent and enthusiasm.
Let's celebrate unity in diversity through dance!
