Q1. 1.As a Diwali holiday assignment, you are tasked with creating a diorama that depicts one of the incidents from the Ramayana. You can choose a specific incident from the epic Ramayana and use various materials like a shoebox, cardboard, clay, colored paper, craft sticks, and more to bring the scene to life. You can use additional materials like paint or markers, and the use of clay, craft materials, or printed images for characters and the backdrop. Since Diwali is closely associated with lights and decorations, it should also incorporate lighting elements like tiny LED lights, paper lanterns, or rangoli patterns into their diorama. You also need to explain the narrative or story behind their diorama, detailing what's happening in the chosen scene. Additionally, you also have to reflect on what you have learnt about Diwali and its connection to the Ramayana through this creative project. Here are few pictures of diorama for your reference.

2. Write a story in your notebook about a young child who is hearing Diwali stories from their grandparents for the first time. How do these stories inspire the child, and what impact do they have on the child's perception of Diwali?
