HOLIDAY ENGAGEMENT

2024-25

As we bid farewell to another academic year and welcome the much-awaited summer break, it's time to shift gears from textbooks to adventures. Take a breather, unwind, and delve into activities that nurture your soul and ignite your creativity. This summer, let's embark on a journey of self-discovery and exploration right from the comfort of our homes.

Let's start by nurturing life - adopt a herb, a houseplant, or a vibrant flower. Witness the magic of growth and learn the art of nurturing. Let the notes of your creativity fill the air as you craft melodies that resonate with your spirit.

"The Summer Holiday Engagement of 2024 is not just a mere vacation; it's a purposeful endeavour designed to keep you engaged and observant. Each task is infused with a significant FUN Quotient, ensuring enjoyment alongside the pursuit of knowledge. Every moment holds the promise of both amusement and enlightenment. "Here's to a summer filled with endless possibilities and unforgettable memories

Instructions for students:

1. Homework should be completed as per the given instructions, whether on A4 paper, Chart Paper, in a notebook, or on a computer.
2. It should be labelled properly indicating the name, class and section.
3. Students are required to submit 15 pages of writing in both Hindi and English, with the English portion composed using running letters (joining letters).
4. Homework will be assessed based on neat handwriting, presentation, creativity, and timely submission of the work.
5. Homework to be submitted on the day of reopening.
6. Spend time with family and friends to make this vacation joyful and cheerful.

Create Your Own Paper Boat Story Booklet

Step-by-Step Instructions:

1. Read the Poem “The Paper Boats” by Rabindranath Tagore of chapter 2 from Rain Lily. Think about the paper boats and their journey described in the poem.
2. Imagine your own paper boat adventure story. Where do the paper boats go? Who are the characters? What challenges do they face? Plan your story in your mind or jot down some ideas on paper.
3. Using your ideas from step 2, write your own paper boat adventure story. Start with a catchy title and then begin writing your story in A4 size colorful papers (excluding dark colors) Write in short sentences and use simple words to describe what happens.
4. Draw or paint pictures to go along with your story. You can draw paper boats, characters, and scenes from your story. Use colorful markers, crayons, or pencils to make your illustrations bright and beautiful.
5. Now it's time to put your story and illustrations together. Fold some sheets of paper in half to make a booklet. Staple the pages together along the fold to keep them in place.
6. On each page of your booklet, write part of your story and draw the corresponding pictures. Be sure to leave enough space for your illustrations next to your writing.
7. Once your story and illustrations are in place, you can decorate the cover of your booklet with more drawings or designs. Make your booklet colorful and fun!
8. Review your booklet to make sure everything looks neat and tidy. Check for any spelling mistakes or smudges on your drawings. Make any necessary corrections.

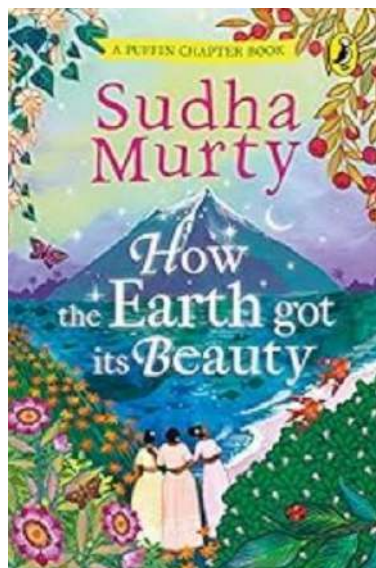

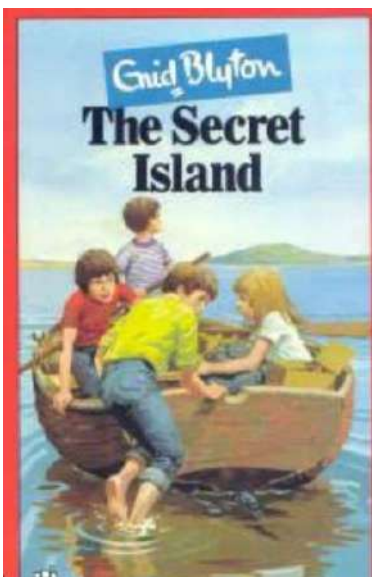

9. Show your completed paper boat story booklet to your family and friends and submit to your English teacher after the summer vacation on the first day of school reopening. Read your story aloud and share your illustrations with them. They'll love hearing about your paper boat adventure!

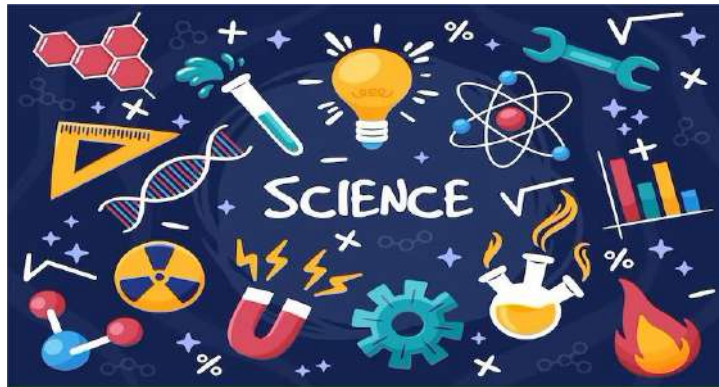

II. Suggested Reading

1. The Lion, the Witch and the wardrobe. The Chronicles of Narnia by C S Lewis.
2. How the Earth got its Beauty by Sudha Murty.
3. The Secret Island by Enid Blyton.

Read any one of these books and write a book review on an A4 size paper. Make sure to include all the relevant information such as the title, author, summary, characters, plot, lessons learned, recommendations and conclusion. Make your book review attractive.
